Ike Remains in Critical Condition

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower remained in critical condition today, suffering from such severe congestive heart failure that doctors are doubting his recovery.

In their latest bulletin Tuesday, doctors at Walter Reed General Hospital said that although the 78-year-old general "has shown no deterioration in the last 4 hours, his condition continues to be critical." This was the first time they had used critical to describe Eisenhower's condition.

Earlier Tuesday, the doctors added to the gloomy outlook when they said it was impossible to predict whether the former president would recover from this latest setback in his 11-month battle against serious heart disease.

They did, however, temper their statement by adding that Eisenhower "has always shown remarkable recuperative power in past illnesses."

The medical bulletins have not been optimistic since doctors announced Monday the general had suffered his second serious congestive heart failure in little more than a week.

An encouraging sign Tuesday was the absence of a late night medical report as had been issued in days previous.

Doctors said Tuesday evening the general had rested comfortably during the day "despite persistence of evidences of congestive heart failure," a condition caused when the heart muscle is unable to pump a sufficient amount of blood through the body.

ed to the recently organized Manufacturers Association. The Board of Directors unanimously approved the idea and authorized the Planning Commission to proceed with preliminary plans which could be presented to the State Highway Commission.

The board approved the payment of annual dues into the South West Arkansas Economic District, which is shared jointly by the city and Hempstead County.

They discussed a request for some traffic control signs in Pines addition. They requested that the police department make a thorough study of conditions and install necessary traffic signs to promote safety in the area. The board also voted to employ Steve Marler as Parks & Recreation Director, at a salary of $5,400.00 a year. He will replace Charles Gough who recently resigned after almost 15 years with the Parks & Recreation Department. The board also voted to purchase a 1/2 ton pickup for use in the Parks Department.

Yesterday speaker at the regular noon luncheon of Hope Kiwanis Club was James H. McKenzie, Prescott attorney, who discussed, "Military Police Civil Disturbance control. The program was arranged by Dr. F.C. Crow.

Court Told Couple Has Sold Lake

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court was told Tuesday the couple who owned an Arkansas recreation club which barred Negroes had sold the property and, in effect, had pulled out of a civil rights case.

Fayetteville, Ark., attorney James W. Gallman said the recreation facility — the Lake Nixon Club at Little Rock — changed hands last September. Gallman, however, had carried the argument of the club owners to the Supreme Court where on Monday the Nixon administration's chief civil rights lawyer, Jerris Leonard, asked the high tribunal to settle the question of the admission of Negroes to privately operated organizations for recreation which are open to the white public.

Conrad K. Harper, NAACP Legal Defense Fund attorney, representing two Negro women who had been turned away from Lake Nixon, said he was unaware the property had been sold and Justice Abe Fortas remarked that it was news to the court, too.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, also apparently unaware of the sale, announced the court had been told that the owners — Mr. and Mrs. Euell Paul Jr. — were unwilling to pursue the issue and that they would close down the Lake Nixon facility rather than admit Negroes.

Legislature Still Wants $200 Month

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A second bill to appropriate "public relations expense money for some constitutional officers was introduced Tuesday in the Arkansas Legislature.

The Joint Budget Committee sponsored bill was introduced in the Senate, where a similar measure is pending after passage in the House.

However, the first measure contains an amendment appropriating $200 a month to members of the House for "public relations" expense.

Under the committee bill, 4,500 would be set aside each year of the next biennium for the secretary of state, auditor, state treasurer, attorney general, land commissioner and lieutenant governor.

The speaker of the House would receive $2,400 a year.

Rep. George Rodgers Jr. of Stuttgart introduced four revenue-producing bills in the

Would Veto of Judges Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. M.L. Womack of Ozark said Tuesday he would ask the House to override Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's veto of a bill setting the salaries and expense allowances for county judges.

Rockefeller said in his veto message that he disapproved of the bill because it omitted travel expense money for Logan County Judge Buster Tritt.

House, one of which would require any holder of a retail liquor permit and a license to dispense mixed drinks to pay an additional $1,000 license fee.

Rodgers also introduced bills to levy a tax of 1 1/2 per cent on the gross proceeds derived from the sale of used motor vehicles, one to levy a tax on soft drink containers at the rate of one cent for each 6-11-ounce container and two cents for each 12-ounce or over container and to remove the use tax exemption on all motor carriers engaged solely in intrastate commerce.

Jerry Lewis Apologizes to Mississippi

NEW YORK (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis has "openly, publicly and humbly" apologized for having broadcast a questionable joke about Mississippi.

State officials, led by Gov. John Bell Williams, had demanded that the National Broadcasting Co. apologize for Lewis' comment made Monday night on the "Tonight" show.

Lewis, host for the show in the absence of Johnny Carson, told his audience Tuesday night: "Last night we did a joke which I suspect, in reflecting, wasn't terribly funny and we did offend some of our friends in Mississippi."

"I openly, publicly and humbly apologize. That certainly was not my intention . . . to offend."

Lewis reportedly commented on the Monday night program that while flying to New York he had used the rest room over Mississippi, fulfilling a long-standing ambition.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

MODERN WOMAN DOES MAN MARRY HER FOR "BITTER AND FOR WORSE?"

Dear Helen: I resent your flippant reply to "Lesson Learned," whose career wife wouldn't become a homemaker.

I doubt that the problem was whether or not she buttered his toast or cut his toenails, as you put it. She probably refused to cook, clean and do his laundry — basics a man expects of the woman he marries. If she won't do these things, what the hell good is she as a wife? Do you think career girls are exempt from home duties and bearing children?

Authorities concede that it takes a mature, intelligent woman to successfully combine a career with marriage—that to avoid divorce, the SMART wife will be submissive as God intended her, and will diminish her tendencies to achieve outside the home and be independent.

dent.—MIFED MALE

Dear Helen: I am from Europe where husbands don't take this "career wife" guff American husbands bow down to. In my home I tell my wife, "You may be right, dear, but I have 51 percent of the vote, and we'll do it my way." She loves me for it. Since I do her thinking for her, she is free to concentrate on making me happy. A very pleasant arrangement. Why don't more American husbands try it?—ANTONE

Dear Antone: ...Because they don't have European wives!—H. Dear Helen: On this battle of the sexes thing, I'd like to say: No man really wants a doormat for a wife. All males secretly yearn for a real woman—one with spirit, a creative mind and a personality of her own.

There are many, many women who have so little pride in themselves that they gladly take any unfair treatment a man dishes ula bill was approved 28-6 and returned to the House for concurrence in an amendment that would guarantee each district 7 1/2 per cent more money than it currently receives providing the money becomes available. The bill originally guaranteed a three per cent increase for each district.

Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift said he didn't plan to seek re-election and that he was ashamed of his futile efforts to change the bill, which he called the worst that could be drawn. "You'll rue the day you passed it," he told his colleagues.

The Senate's bill to increase judges salaries was trimmed by a House amendment before the lower chamber defeated the measure 48-37, with 51 votes needed for passage.

The voting machine had recorded 52 votes for the bill but four of these were successfully challenged by opponents during the sounding of the ballot, a process under which the roll is called and each member must acknowledge how he voted if a challenge is raised. If a member is out of the chamber at the time, that vote is discounted.

The House had debated the bill and proposed amendments to it for about two hours. The original bill would have authorized a $30,000 for the chief justice of the Supreme Court, $26,500 for associate justices and $22,500 for circuit and chancery judges. These figures were reduced to $26,500, $24,000 and $20,000, respectively, by an amendment.

The amended figures are also contained in the general appropriation bill which will require 75 votes for passage.

During the debate, Rep. Gayle Windsor of Little Rock said he had intended to vote for the bill until he received notice from a senator that Sen. Guy H. "Mutt" Jones of Conway had given notice of reconsideration on the only bill Windsor had sponsored which passed the House.

Declaring that "I've had it up to here with trying to please a certain senator over there," Windsor said he had changed his mind. He voted against the bill.

Windsor said he was convinced Jones was using the tactic in an attempt to force him to vote for the bill.

The lower chamber defeated 26-57 a bill by Sen. Dan T. Sprick of Little Rock that would have authorized cities to impose a payroll tax on its residents and nonresidents working in the city. The tax would have to be approved in an election.

Approved 65-16 was a bill by Moore prescribing a maximum work week of 64 hours for firemen in cities with a population

out. Once this happens, he loses his respect for his self-made slave. If more women were to stand up for their rights, a man wouldn't take advantage of them. They are treated poorly because they allow it.—BILL

Dear Helen: Please convey my sympathy to women whose husbands resent their brains. Their mistake: Letting their brains show. They must learn to act stupid if they want to get along in society. It's not easy—in fact it can be agony to an intelligent woman.

I am a simple, everyday housewife with an IQ in the genius range. I've been married over 20 years to a good man. But it's like being condemned forever to read "Dick and Jane" after having developed a taste for the classics!—ME JANE, YOU STUPID

Dear Helen: I am a member of Mensa, the International Social and research organization who accepts only those candidates who score above 98 per cent of the general population in a supervised intelligence test.

I am happy to report that I have no difficulties in my relationships with men—even those who are aware of my Mensa membership. Some men have been attracted to me because of my brains. While for others, they were just a little something extra thrown in.

Furthermore, in cases where Mensa women have non-Mensa husbands, I have noted that pride in his wife's ability, rather than resentment of it, is the usual reaction of the husband. I know of only one woman in our local chapter who feels that men resent her brains, and she is basically masculine in orientation. In other words, she competes.

For other intelligent women, I offer this advice: Don't play dumb! Your falseness will turn off men and women alike.

Remember that intelligent talk can be charming, especially if it is sparked with wit, good humor, appreciation of the other person's qualities, and concern for his enjoyment.—IQ 158 of 15,000 or more. The Senate passed 24-5 House bill imposing a tax of three cents per acre of timberland. The money would go to the state Forestry Commission for forest fire prevention. The upper chamber also concurred in a House amendment to a bill setting up the machinery to build a state library building.

The library would be financed through bonds which would be retired by money derived from an increase in the corporate franchise tax. The bill originally increased the tax from .11 to .14 of one per cent but the House amendment reduced the increase to .13.

Democrat Is Far Ahead in Tennessee

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Ed Jones, a Democrat, ran far ahead of nine other candidates to win the Tennessee 8th District seat in the first congressional race since the general election last November.

Jones, a cotton farmer, had 32,705 votes to 16,336 for William Davis, running for George C. Wallace's American Independent party, and 15,644 for Leonard Dunavent, the Republican nominee. Six independents trailed for behind in the voting Tuesday.

The district is traditionally Democratic, but Wallace carried it last November when running for president against Richard M. Nixon and Hubert H. Humphrey. The congressional vacancy was caused by the death of Democratic Rep. Robert A. Everett last Jan. 20.

Elvin Hayes First Rookie to Get Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, the Big E of San Diego, became the first rookie in nine years to win the individual scoring championship of the National Basketball Association.

Final statistics released by the league today showed the 6-foot-9 star scored 2,327 points in 82 games for an average of 28.4.

Not since Wilt Chamberlain, then with Philadelphia, did it in 1960 has a rookie won the NBA scoring title. Chamberlain scored 2,707 points in 72 games that season.

Hayes beat Earl Monroe of the Eastern Division champion Baltimore Bullets. Monroe had 2,065 points in 80 games.

Billy Cunningham of Philadelphia was third at 2,034, Bob Rule of Seattle fourth with 1,965 and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati fifth with 1,955.

The breakdown on Hayes showed he played 3,695 minutes, made 930-of-2,083 field goal tries, 467-of-746 free throws, grabbed 1,406 rebounds and handed out 113 assists. He drew 266 personal fouls and fouled out of only two games.

Chamberlain, now with the Los Angeles Lakers, had the best field goal percentage, .583, and Larry Siegfried of the Boston Celtics was tops in free throws with an .864 percentage.

Chamberlain was the leader in rebounds with 1,712 for an average of 21.1 per game while Robertson set the pace in assists with 772 for 9.8 per game average.

The veteran Chamberlain, who already holds most of the league scoring records, put a couple of more in the book.

He became the all-time NBA high scorer with his 1,664 in 81 games for a career total of 27,098 and extended to 787 his mark of playing the most consecutive games without fouling out.

Chamberlain, who has won nine NBA titles in the last 10 years, finished a dismal fourth this season, their lowest placing since they finished last in 1949-50. They hadn't been below second since a third place finish in 1954-55.

"We have to redeem ourselves," says John Havlicek of Boston.

"I'm looking forward to the playoffs as a new season," adds Sam Jones, who is retiring after the playoffs.

With Jones leaving and age creeping up on player-coach Bill Russell, Satch Sanders and Bailey Howell, this might be Boston's last shot at an NBA championship in the near future.

The Celtics did have a 5-2 edge over the second-place 76ers during the regular season, but it was an evenly played series with two of the games going into overtime.

Playoffs in NBA Starts Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The National Basketball Association playoffs open tonight and for perhaps the first time the spotlight shines on a fourth place team, the Boston Celtics.

Can they pull it off one more time?

The Celtics will be trying to salvage their most miserable season since 1949-50 when they began the Eastern Division semifinal best-of-7 series at Philadelphia.

San Francisco plays at Los Angeles in the Western Division semifinal opener.

The New York Knicks invade Baltimore and San Diego opposes host Atlanta Thursday night in the other semifinals.

The Celtics, who have won nine NBA titles in the last 10 years, finished a dismal fourth this season, their lowest placing since they finished last in 1949-50. They hadn't been below second since a third place finish in 1954-55.

"We have to redeem ourselves," says John Havlicek of Boston.

"I'm looking forward to the playoffs as a new season," adds Sam Jones, who is retiring after the playoffs.

With Jones leaving and age creeping up on player-coach Bill Russell, Satch Sanders and Bailey Howell, this might be Boston's last shot at an NBA championship in the near future.

The Celtics did have a 5-2 edge over the second-place 76ers during the regular season, but it was an evenly played series with two of the games going into overtime.

Los Angeles, with superstars Wilt Chamberlain, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West, are favored to oust the thirdplace Warriors and then go on to win its division title.

"We have the best basketball team we've ever had in Los Angeles," said West after the Lakers won their division by seven games over Atlanta.

However, the Warriors are not about to concede. When they are healthy—and they appear to be for the playoffs—they can go against anyone, and they have Nate Thurmond to help offset Chamberlain.

Searcy Is Beaten in AAU Play

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
MACON, Ga. (AP) — The National AAU Basketball Tournament, moved out of Denver, Colo., because of declining attendance, got off to a disappointing debut in Dixie.

Macon fans were disappointed in the AAU, and the AAU was disappointed with Tuesday night's opening crowd of about 1,500.

The disappointment was caused by the absence of the Kitchen Fresh Clippers of Los Angeles, which had indicated it would be on hand with UCLA's Lew Alcindor.

Not only did Alcindor not show up—which was really not surprising because there had never been a flat commitment that he would be here—but neither did the Clippers.

And so when Coach Hal Fischer met with his defending champion Armed Forces All-Stars during the afternoon all he had to say was, "We no longer have an opponent."

The All-Stars moved into Thursday's quarter-finals by default, and will meet the Cocoa Beach, Fla., Headhunters. Cocoa Beach advanced with a 77-55 triumph over Searcy, Ark., in the only Tuesday night game.

The All-Stars played an exhibition game against a make-up team which quickly became the crowd favorite although it was trounced 104-46.

The other 12 teams in the tournament continue first-round play today with six games set for the afternoon and evening.

Tournament officials were hoping for a bigger turnout, and Bill Summers, national basketball director for the game, said that during the tournament's long run in Denver attendance picked up as play progressed.

"I was disappointed in the crowd," Summers said. "We had a bigger crowd for our regional tournament in Indiana."

But he said the slim turnout may have resulted from the mixup over the Los Angeles team. And he said that the turnout was larger than crowds in Denver in early rounds in recent years.

"AAU basketball isn't dead," Summers said.

"But it may soon be if tournament teams don't keep their commitments," said the tournament director, Dr. Andy Lawrence of Macon.

"Stuff like this is going to kill AAU basketball," Lawrence said.

Tournament officials said they did not know Los Angeles was not coming until they contacted a member of the team about 1 p.m.

Time Trials in Atlanta 500 Race

by BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
ATLANTA (AP) — Time trials begin today for the Atlanta 500 stock car race, but a new storm may be brewing over the escalation of engine sizes and factory support for stock racing teams.

Ford will introduce its new 429 cubic inch semi-hemi racing engine with a team of five factory-supported cars headed by David Pearson, last year's NASCAR driving champ.

The engine, called the Blue Crescent because of its c-shaped hemispherical combustion chamber, was cleared for use by the Auto Competition Committee of the United States last week.

The ACCUS rules require that at least 500 cars and 500 engines must be produced before either unit can be raced. Ford homologated the engine to a limited production sports car called the Boss Mustang.

Chrysler Corp. will have its usual team of four factory-supported Dodge Chargers on hand, but an executive of the firm said the company will reevaluate its racing program after Sunday's event.

While he did not say the company would curtail its racing program, Rodger hinted that such action could result.

"There is a point of diminishing returns from this constant escalation of the sport," he said.

Ohio State to Open Spring Training

by HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Another exciting basketball season is over and baseball is just around the corner. But at Ohio State, the talk is football.

Coach Woody Hayes greets his national champion Buckeyes and a dozen outstanding frosh; candidates Monday when Ohio opens five weeks of spring drills.

The Bucks are allotted four practice sessions a leading to and climaxed by the spring game windup on May 3.

Hayes has the unenviable task of improving on the performance of his 1968 squad which racked up a perfect 9-0 season, an impressive Rose Bowl triumph over Southern California and a national championship.

But there is such an abundance of talent here that the Buckeyes figure to be overwhelming favorites to capture the Big Ten championship and add to their 14-game winning streak, the longest in the nation.

Only three offensive regulars—tackles Dave Foley, an All-American, Rufus Mayes and center John Muhlback—and a pair of defensive stalwarts middle guard Vic Stottlmyer and linebacker Mark Stier, graduate.

Returning are quarterback Rex Kern, the super sophomore, and a host of other sophomores who blossomed into fullfledged starters last season and will be juniors this fall.

Kern, recovering from surgery for a chronic shoulder ailment, will not participate in spring drills. Backup Ron Maciejowski will be at the throttle but Hayes and his aides want to take a good look at Don Lamka, up from the frosh squad.

There are few openings, indeed, on the first team offensive and defensive units.

Lamka, a 5-foot-11, 190-pounder is one of a half-dozen all-state prep gridders who flocked to Ohio State last year.

Lamka is a quarterback who is not likely to dislodge Kern or Maciejowski.

"He's too good an athlete to be a third-string quarterback," says freshman coach Tiger Ellison. "He will probably get a good test at quarterback as well as at quarterback."

Ellis figures "there are enough good players coming up to prevent last year's team from getting fatheaded."

"I certainly feel we will be a little better than last year."

Obviously miffed at the Accus decision to sanction Ford new powerplant, Robert M. Rodger, Chrysler's performance manager, said:

"There is not a heck of a lot we can do about this right now. These things are pretty much iron clad. We will be at Atlanta ready to race positively, but we will reevaluate our program after the race."

While he did not say the company would curtail its racing program, Rodger hinted that such action could result.

"There is a point of diminishing returns from this constant escalation of the sport," he said.

"Everytime somebody escalates there is a great big bundle of money involved, especially when cars depart from being stock. I don't know what NASCAR's definition of stock is, but I know what ours is."

Baseball Is Still Trading Players

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
For a short time this week, General Manager Paul Richards of Atlanta might have been considering a comeback as a player after he had traded the Braves into an acute catcher shortage with the season opener only two weeks away.

Richards looked like the only man in the Braves' spring training camp with major league experience behind the plate—in the 1940s—following the departure of Joe Torre and the rumored retirement of Bob Tillman.

But Richards found himself out of the competition today and back in the front office when Tillman decided to return and Richards acquired journeyman receiver Dave Adlesh from the St. Louis Cardinals for utility infielder Bob Johnson.

Until, then, the only catchers on duty in the Braves camp were Walt Hrinak and Bob Didier, both without major league experience, and Hrinak out with an injury.

Tillman, who had been excused from spring training for 13 days for personal reasons, now looks like the starting catcher for Atlanta, despite a mediocre career. Adlesh will be sent to the minors.

While no other team found itself caught that short, several were mulling over the loss of key players to injury.

Roberto Clemente, Pittsburgh's four-time National League batting champion, was the most important, leaving the Pirates in a worried state after he flew to his Puerto Rico home Tuesday for treatment of an ailing left shoulder that bothered him much of last season.

Clemente injured the shoulder about two weeks ago diving for a fly ball, and has not seen action since.

The San Francisco Giants lost slugging left fielder Jim Hart for at least five days when he stumbled chasing a foul fly in the Giants' 12-3 victory over Oakland, injuring a groin muscle that hampered him in 1968. Willie McCovey drove in four runs, two with a homer, in the game.

Cleveland lost catcher Duke Sims for three to four weeks as he dislocated a ring finger on his right hand when hit by a foul tip in Cleveland's 6-5 triumph over Seattle on Tony Horton's ninth-inning homer.

Tom McCrew, Chicago White Sox first baseman, will be out for 10 to 12 weeks after undergoing knee surgery.

In other moves, Montreal acquired rookie first baseman Don Pepper from Detroit for cash, and several former major leaguers were sent to the minors—Bill Stafford of Seattle and Larry Sherry and Luis Alcaraz of Kansas City.

On the field, home runs carried the day as Baltimore bombed Washington 8-2, Cincinnati routed Detroit 16-1, Kansas City blanked Boston 4-0, St. Louis outlasted Minnesota 10-5, Houston tripped Atlanta 3-1, the Chicago Cubs trimmed San Diego 5-3 and Los Angeles' A team dropped Pittsburgh 10-4.

Boog Powell drove in four runs with a homer and two singles for Baltimore and Tony Perez slammed two homers and two doubles for Cincinnati. Joe Foy and Jerry Adair turned on their former Boston mates, Foy with a two-run homer and Adair with a run-scoring double.

Dal Maxvill and Phil Gagliano broke a tie with successive homers for St. Louis, offsetting a three-run shot by Tony Olivo of the Twins. Jim Wynn's two-run blast won for Houston and homers by Ron Santo and Don Young carried the Cubs by San Diego.

Wes Parker hit a two-run homer and Bill Sadukis drove in five runs for the Dodgers.

In other games, Montreal beat Don Drysdale and the Los Angeles B team 6-3 and California clubbed Hawaii of the Pacific

PITTSBURGH PIRATES' Bob Robertson practices sliding in sawdust pit at Pirate camp in Bradenton, Fla. Robertson is making comeback after kidney operation.

Bucs Capture Another Fight With Denver

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New Orleans Bucs have won another battle in their struggle with Denver to determine which team doesn't have to open the American Basketball Association playoffs against Oakland.

The Bucs, who slid from second place last November to the cellar in the Western Division, returned to second Tuesday night with a 112-100 victory over Denver in New Orleans.

The victory was the ninth in a row for New Orleans, which is trying, like Denver, to avoid a meeting with the powerful Oaks, who lead the division by 13 games despite a 127-120 loss at Dallas.

In the Eastern Division, the battle still is on for the top spot as Indiana retained a 2½ game lead with a 140-124 rout over Los Angeles.

Miami climbed within one percentage points of second place Kentucky by beating the Colonels 125-106.

Minnesota broke an eight-game losing streak and extended New York's string to 11 defeats in a row by whipping the Nets 114-104.

There were no games in the National Basketball Association, whose playoffs begin tonight.

New Orleans, with Jimmy Jones scoring 24 of his 33 points, took a 73-44 halftime lead and breezed in.

Dallas took an 11-point halftime lead and held off the Oaks to become the only team to split the season series against Oakland, 5-5.

Roger Brown pumped in 45 points, including 20 in the final period, as Indiana romped. George Stone was high for Los Angeles with 31.

Don Freeman scored 32 points and Willie Murrell 24 as Miami pulled away from a four-point lead in the third period at Louisville.

Minnesota never trailed after taking a 38-34 lead as Art Heyman notched 31 points and Connie Hawkins 21.

Coast League 12-2. The Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees were rained out.

$100,000 Florida Derby on Saturday

by GENE PLOWDEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI (AP) — The $100,000 Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park Saturday, the final stern test for 3-year-olds before the horses head for Kentucky, poses many intriguing questions.

Can the Steven B. Wilson estate's Top Knight, champion 2-year old of 1968, repeat his Flamingo Stakes victory at the same distance with stiffer competition?

Will Odgen Mills Phipps' Beau Brummel, who defeated Top Knight in the rich Garden State Stakes last fall, do it again under the expert training of Eddie Neloy?

Can Rokeby Stable's Arts and Letters winner of the Everglades and second in the Flamingo, beat the top two with the smooth-riding Bill Shoemaker in the saddle?

Will Polican Stable's roan colt, Al Hattab, winner of the Hutcheson and Foulain of Youth stakes at Gulfstream, repeat his performance in Saturday's longer, richer race?

Can Mrs. D.C. Rigney's Fast Hilarious, winner of four stakes since the Florida season began last November, take the Gulfstream prize to go with triumphs at Tropical and Hialeah?

Will Claiborne Farm's Drone, winner of all his three starts and all of them as a 3-year-old, keep the record clean and give jockey Jorge Velasquez his first Florida Derby victory?

It could be Shoemaker's fourth Derby triumph at Gulfstream. He won with Correlation, 1954; Candy Spots, 1963 and Northern Dancer, 1964.

Manuel Yeazaa, rider on Top Knight, won with Ridan in 1962, but it would be the first for Braulio Baeza, who rides Beau Brummel; Ron Trucotte on Fast Hilarious or Ray Broussard on Al Hattab.

Any one of them might just "call a Court Recess," as one wiseacre said.

Court Recess was the unheralded C.V. Whitney horse who stunned form players last Saturday when he hooked up in a sizzling stretch duel with Gene Goff's Nodouble and won first money of $86,400 by a nose in the Gulfstream Park Handicap.

shortstop and Bobby Knoop at second.

Aurelio Rodriguez retains his hold at third base and Rick Reichardt is the man in left field.

Casualty Report for Air Opening

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI (AP) — Lee Trevino has a sore thumb, Arnold Palmer has an aching back, Jack Nicklaus has an attack of tee wildness and that's the casualty report for the $200,000 National Airlines Open Golf Tournament, starting Thursday.

Trevino, the voluble U.S. Open champion, became the newest on the hospital list when he jammed his left thumb into a door on his arrival here Tuesday, forcing him out of the program tournament today.

Alan Mowbray loved acting and actors in general. "If a bomb hit Hollywood, it would only be a matter of time before someone was squinting amid the ruins telling stories," he once said.

Four days after entering Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital, Mowbray died Tuesday of a heart attack at 72.

Sheridan Tank Apparently a Costly Boo Boo

By JACK KNEECE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a House subcommittee has accused the Army of a "billion-dollar boo boo" in developing a new tank because: — Although the tank is for reconnaissance, it can be heard three miles away.

— It has a "rooster tail exhaust" system that makes it an easy target.

— Its caseless ammunition is ultraflammable, leaves burning residue in the breech which can prematurely ignite a round, and is adversely affected by moisture, oil, and rough handling.

— "Due to a problem with fuel-tank leaks, frequent checks for spilled fuel should be made to prevent fires."

— "When operating in jungle or heavy underbrush, vegetation will clog air intake grilles and the radiator, requiring frequent cleaning to avoid overheating."

— "The (Shillelagh) missile must not be fired when the launch vehicle is in motion."

— "Under extremely dusty conditions, the present air cleaner requires cleaning or replacement every 1 1/2 hours."

These were the findings of a previously classified document that Rep. Samuel Stratton, D-N.Y., ordered the Army to release Tuesday after six days of secret testimony on the Sheridan tank.

Stratton, chairman of the subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee, said "the people have a right to know this incredible story."

Stratton charged that the Army had rushed the weapons system into combat and mass production in order to eliminate its possible drawback or elimination by the Bureau of the Budget and the secretary of defense.

He succeeded during the hearings in winning admission from one Army officer, Lt. Col. Stan Sheridan, that the tank was recommended for production for budgetary reasons although tests had indicated there were many problems.

Later, Sheridan's superiors heatedly denied this, despite an internal memorandum in the subcommittee's possession in which this point was stressed by Sheridan.

Lt. Gen. Austin W. Belts, chief of research and development for the Army, in often heated exchanges with Stratton, said it was relatively routine procedure to recommend production before all bugs in a system had been worked out.

Belts said the tank was recommended because there was an urgent need for it in Vietnam, and that he was sure the problems could be surmounted. He said this was his only consideration.

Stratton, who termed the tank "a billion dollar boo boo," sharply told Belts: "We don't want to get a snow job here." He termed the general's comments "self-serving" and not in accord with results of the investigation.

May Show a Film of RFK's Last Speech

By HARRY ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — A film of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's last speech acknowledging victory in the California Democratic presidential primary before a joyous crowd—may be shown to the jury trying Sirhan Bishara Sirhan for murder.

Kennedy had just finished the speech in the Ambassador Hotel, shouted "On to Chicago," and was moving to another room to meet with newsmen when he was mortally wounded by Sirhan early last June 5.

The state said it will try to introduce the 15-minute film as rebuttal to defense claims that Sirhan became enraged by Kennedy's advocacy of more arms for Israel.

Dr. Bernard L. Diamond, a psychiatrist scheduled to undergo cross-examination today, testified Sirhan told him under hypnosis that he hated the New York senator because he made a campaign promise to send U.S. jets to Israel.

"It would be important for the jury to see that Kennedy did nothing that night to rekindle the flame," said Lynn D. Compton, deputy district attorney. "It was an innocuous speech."

Grant B. Cooper, chief defense counsel, said he would object to having the film introduced.

"There is no suggestion by the defense that the speech decided him to shoot the senator," said Cooper. "There is nothing in the record to indicate Sirhan even heard the speech."

Diamond, a professor of medicine, law and criminology at the University of California, Monday described Sirhan as self-programmed to assassinate Kennedy.

HOPE NEWSPAPER HISTORY

The 1929 consolidation joined the two principal newspaper lines dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1879.

1899 — Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude McCorkle; converted to an evening daily by his son, Ed. McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

The opposition line:

1880 — Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.

1883 — Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

1883 — Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle, renamed Hope Mercury.

1884 — Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, and which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by Betts, J. L. Tullis, and Col. W. Folsom the last-named dying 1916.

1916 — Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made a companion paper to their n daily, Arkansas Evening Herald — but both papers suspended 1922.

1926 — Plant was revived Curtis Cannon as the weekly Hempstead County Review.

1927 — Cannon sold plant D. A. Gean, who established morning Hope Daily Press.

1929 — C. E. Palmer and A. Washburn consolidated The Star and the Press as Hope Star, with Palmer as president and Washburn secretary-treasurer.

1957 — Following Mr. Palmer's death Mrs. Palmer came president.

1969 — With Mrs. Palmer retirement from Star Publishing Co. Washburn became per cent owner and president — balance 24 per cent being held by Texarkana Newspapers, Inc.

Unrest in Schools Strictly Matter of Discipline

Is a college education a privilege, as our older generation thought, or is it a "right" as some claim today?

Riots sweep many college campuses, and one forthright professor declares:

"There are far too many students in the colleges who have no business to be there."

The words are from Bruno Bettelheim, native of Vienna, author and professor at the University of Chicago, testifying last Thursday before a House Education Subcommittee hearing. Here's an additional part of the Associated Press dispatch which appeared in morning newspapers Friday, March 21:

"Bettelheim said youths should spend a year or two after high school in vocational programs or a youth service corps patterned on the Peace Corps instead of being pushed into college."

"A large part of the trouble today is the emotional immaturity of the college students," he said. "And there is an easy cure for immaturity. Let us age them a little . . ."

"Their deep dissatisfaction with themselves and their inner confusion is projected against the university first," he said, "and then against all institutions of society, which are blamed for their own inner weakness."

Obviously Bettelheim is a professor of the Old School, believing that college attendance is a privilege rather than a "right."

He explains violence on the campus in the terms of his profession, psychology — an explanation that appears valid to this editor, but still merely an explanation.

Explanations do not relieve school administrators of responsibility for maintaining law and order on campuses dedicated to peace and study. Obviously campus riots are the direct result of the failure of adult discipline. As you might expect, the tax-supported, therefore politically-oriented, schools are more prone to violence than the church-supported colleges, where discipline is enforced — where a student is expected to prove himself by study before asking adults to hear his opinions.

The arrogance of immaturity is invading even the high schools. Students wrecked a Forrest City (Ark.) school so badly it couldn't be used for classes, and then had the temerity to "demand" they be admitted temporarily to schools that were as yet unwrecked.

The Forrest City School Board gave them a hard-fisted "No."

And tax-supported college disciplinarians who don't come up with the right answer nowadays are busy looking for other jobs.

Expense Money Housewives Simply Do Not Want Their Homes Run by Computers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A bill to provide expense accounts for at least 40 sheriffs, salary raises for most deputies and more deputies in some counties became law Tuesday without the signature of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Most of the sheriffs are paid $5,000 a year but the expense allowances and benefits would push six of them to $9,800 or more.

Among those receiving the $4,800 expense allowances are Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins and Desha County Sheriff R. S. Moore, both of whom lobbied actively and successfully for the sheriff's bill and a bill to remove the Local Audits Division from the state Administration Department.

Rockefeller vetoed the auditing bill but the House overrode the veto.

Big 4 Talks on Middle East Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — After weeks of private discussion, the Big 4 delegates at the United Nations are ready to gather around the table and consider how to get a durable peace in the Middle East.

Some sources say the four-man talks, motivated more by fear of failure than by hope of success, will get under way next week.

President Nixon appears to be counting most heavily on Soviet cooperation to bring about a settlement that would give Nixon a major achievement in the foreign field. It also would be a big boost for Secretary-General U Thant and the United Nations.

The United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France appear to agree that they should utilize Gennadiy Jarring, Thant's special Middle East envoy.

Jarring, Sweden's ambassador to Moscow, has been trying since December, 1967, to get Israel and the Arabs to work out peace terms based on the U.N. Security Council's Nov. 22, 1967, resolution. The resolution called for Israeli withdrawal from Arab territory occupied during the 1967 war and Arab recognition of Israel as a sovereign state with defined frontiers.

Israel, however, has made clear it has no intention of giving up the Old City of Jerusalem, the Golan Heights in Syria and other strategic pieces of Arab real estate acquired in the war.

Israel has rejected the concept of a solution imposed by the Big 4, the Arabs have rejected territorial concessions to Israel.

Asks Spending Cut as Price of Extending Income Tax Surcharge Corporation Tax Increase Is Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, declaring that "inflation is a form of economic aggression," proposed to Congress today that the problem be met by extending the income tax surcharge for another 12 months and by making significant cuts in federal spending.

In a special message, Nixon reported that at least half of the budget surpluses envisioned in January by former President Lyndon B. Johnson already have evaporated — in some cases because of inflation and in others because of overly optimistic estimates.

Faced with that situation, Nixon said he will propose budget revisions for the fiscal year starting July 1 that will reduce spending "significantly below the amount recommended in January." He gave no details.

The chief executive, in call for a continuation of the 10 percent federal income tax surtax beyond scheduled June 30 expiration, declared:

"As I have said before, the surcharge is a temporary tax that must be ended as soon as our commitments in Southeast Asia and economic conditions permit."

In the Senate, Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the majority leader, said earlier that Congress should insist on a second big spending cut as its price for extending the surcharge.

And the Senate's Democrat spokesman said Congress should decide where the cuts are made — unlike last year when it left most of the trimming to former President Johnson.

Sen. W. D. Moore Jr. of El Dorado said, "I'm amused over the tear-jerking speeches about the little corporations leaving Arkansas. They're not going to leave."

Moore said he had heard one senator say he "could slap it on the welfare recipient by raising the sales tax, but that he can't put it on the corporations."

The bill would increase from four per cent to five per cent the tax on corporate income between $11,000 and $25,000 and from five to six per cent the income in excess of $25,000.

The school distribution formula would be changed.

Ft. Smith Man Shot to Death

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Guy Marlow, 36, of Fort Smith was shot to death Tuesday night at a house in Fort Smith and a woman was being questioned in connection with the incident, police said.

Prosecutor Charles Karr said Yalga Marlene Mize, 34, also of Fort Smith, was being questioned about the shooting. He said police also were seeking witnesses to the incident.

Marlow died of one shot in the chest from a .32 - caliber pistol.

$2.3 Million Road Work for This Area

Ben M. Hogan Co. of Little Rock landed the loop contract with an apparent low bid of $1,675,628. Nashville Bridge Co. of Nashville, Tenn., had the apparent low bid of $1,586,149 for the Pendleton Bridge contract.

Many Feel Private Talks Underway

By H.L. SCHWARTZ Jr.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has given fresh impetus to the growing belief that the private talks he favors for ending the Vietnam war already are under way.

But in doing so, the President made it clear he wants to keep those talks whether they actually have begun or are about to-as secret as possible.

"That kind of negotiation cannot take place in a goldfish bowl," Nixon told the National Association of Broadcasters Tuesday in an off-the-cuff speech.

"I can tell you," he said, "that it is our conviction and our belief that it is through private talks with the North Vietnamese and others involved that the real progress toward peace will be made."

Nixon went on to say that if anyone in the administration is asked "as to whether private talks should begin, as to what has occurred, we will say nothing."

Board Talks Over Paving, Underpass

The City Board of Directors last night authorized advertising for bids on the paving of 6th street. Date for opening bids is tentatively set for April 29th. John Hawkins presented plans and specifications covering the work and explained the schedule planned for construction.

Underground work on the west side of the railroad is almost completed and the contractor doing the underground work will be moving to the east side of the track within a few days. This work is scheduled for completion ahead of the earliest possible date for beginning on actual installation of curb gutter and paving.

The Board of Directors had a report from a committee composed of Dr. Sam Strong, Clyde Fouse and Leonard Ellis, who had been asked to work out some alternate plan for connections to I-30. They had checked with the Urban Renewal Commission and found that an underpass would be eligible for urban renewal assistance.

The committee had also met with the Planning & Zoning Commission and The Hope Housing Authority. Both of these bodies approved the proposal to build an underpass at Shover Street. This idea had also been presented.

Allied Ammo Dump Blown Up by Cong

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong mortars smashed into a major American base south of Saigon early today, blowing up hundreds of tons of ammunition, wrecking scores of buildings, and destroying three helicopters. Only a few Americans were killed, but more than 60 were wounded.

Shelling of the headquarters base of the 9th Infantry Division at Dong Tam, 40 miles south of Saigon, was one of 30 rocket and mortar attacks by the Viet Cong on the 32nd night of their spring offensive.

North Vietnamese troops followed up one of the attacks with an infantry charge that carried them to the barbed wire perimeter of another American base 45 miles northwest of Saigon. Before they were driven off eight American air cavalrymen were killed and 7 were wounded and only two enemy bodies were found on the barbed wire.

Col. Ira Hunt of McLean, Va., chief of staff of the 9th Division, estimated that as much as 500 tons of ammunition, mostly small arms, went up in the attack on the Dong Tam base.

"We were expecting it because we had information from a prisoner," Hunt told AP photographer Max Nash.

Hunt said about 13 rounds of 120mm mortars, the biggest in the enemy arsenal, slammed into the base an hour and a half before midnight but caused little damage.

"We thought that was it," said Hunt. "Many men had left their bunkers after the first attack."

Then came another barrage about midnight. One of the first shells hit an ammunition storage pad, triggering a series of explosions in at least half a dozen more pads. After that the Americans couldn't distinguish the incoming rounds from their own exploding ammunition.

Two crews got their helicopters off the ground but were knocked down by the exploding shells. A third helicopter was destroyed on the ground.

The 9th Division base has been shelled more than a dozen times during the enemy's spring offensive.

Scores of helicopters and hundreds of tons of ammunition and fuel have been lost, but the U.S. Command has never disclosed the exact amounts.

"They don't like us," said Col. Hunt. "We've killed 2,800 enemy troops so far this month."

South Vietnamese headquarters said five mortar rounds killed three children and wounded four soldiers in Quang Tri City, 19 miles below the demilitarized zone.

MIAMI (AP) — A hijacker forced a Delta Air Lines jet carrying 114 persons, including 26 young Marine Corps recruits, to fly to Cuba early today.

The plane landed safely at Havana, where the security guard around the terminal area was so tight that foreign newsmen could not get a glimpse of the hijacker.

The plane was seized 10 minutes after takeoff from Dallas in the 21st hijacking of a commercial airliner to Cuba this year.

The DC8 was preparing to complete Delta's Flight 821 from Newark, N.J., to San Diego and Los Angeles when pilot William Wood radioed for permission to change course.

"Are you returning to the field?" asked the control center at Fort Worth, Tex.

"No," Capt. Wood said, "flying to Havana."

If Cuba authorities follow the pattern established in recent hijackings, the plane and its passengers would be released today for the return flight to the United States.

Most of those aboard the jet, including the Marine recruits, were en route to San Diego. Other military personnel also were aboard.
